This is a video of MSNBC retards opining about the "racial overtones" of guns at health care rallies. Dylan Ratigan, Toure and Contessa Brewer (is that a real name?) go on and on about "white people showing up with guns". Yes, this certainly does seem like a problem all right, with all those "white people" showing up to kill the President.

I was at this rally, so I know that there is a small technical problem with the MSNBC spin.....wait for it....

The racist, gun toting, Barack Obama murdering, Un-American, evil-mongering citizen is.....wait for it.....

Black!

MSNBC intentionally edited the video footage to make it impossible to see that the gun toting sociopath was in fact a black guy and not a "white person showing up with a gun".

No wonder that their ratings are in the tank.
